OTHER HOBBIES AUGUST PROGRAM

A FASCINATING AND EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE.

It never ceases to amaze at the variety of odd, curious, and sometimes, downright zany things people collect, but it's always fun to see what our fellow collectors bring in to share. Almost everyone, who collects numismatic stuff, collects something else. I guess we just can't help ourselves. So, bring your other hobby and tell us about it, and while you're at it, you can learn about someone else's. You know, 'I'll show you mine if you'll show me yours'. We'll also have our regular show & tell, auction and raffle.

AUGUST Raffle Prizes Include:

1. 1853 $2½ Liberty U. S. Gold Coin
2. 1987 U. S. Prestige Proof Set
3. Mexico 1945 2 Pesos Gold Coin
4. 1952 Washington-Carver Commemorative 50¢
5. 1860 Indian Head Cent
6. 1962 U. S. Proof Set
7. 2005 U. S. one oz. Silver Eagle
8. Canada 1981 specimen silver dollar (Train)
9. 1923-S Peace $1.00
10. 2006 "Redbook" hardbound

SEE YOU THERE

THE FABULOUS FIFTIES That was the theme for the hot July evening's program.

July's 'Youth Night/Hot Dog Night' started with a grand gourmet Hot Dog Feast provided by Historian, Sally Johnson and her helpers Nancy Perkins, Patricia Russ, Gwen Stanford, Ryan Johnson, Tony Yu, Don Barsi and Martha Davis. The menu included hot dogs, macaroni salad, potato salad, baked beans and an array of pot-luck deserts. This was all served on extra tables with red and white checkered table coverings. The meal was followed by a large auction, announcements and 22 'Show & Tellers'.

Jr. Vice President, Ryan Johnson speaking on 'The Fabulous Fifties', with Member, Ed Flemate's collection of '50s memorabilia in the background.

The evening's program speaker was 15 year old, Jr. Vice President, Ryan Johnson. (It's been a long time since the featured speaker was a youth member) Ryan spoke of events, conditions and people from one of his favorite periods, the 'Fabulous Fifties', while including interesting information on coins and currency of the decade. He even preceded his presentation with a little '50s music.

Ryan followed his talk with the answers to a 25-question 'Fifties Quiz' he had passed out earlier. Member, Ed Flemate brought in part of his collection of '50s memorabilia to display and share with the members. Ed's stuff included a miniature juke box, magazines, pictures, etc., etc., etc. It was a fun evening of food and nostalgia. A huge thanks to Sally, her helpers, and all of the contributors, and Ryan for providing the club with a great July program.

Consumer Awareness From the US Mint

The United States Mint seeks to protect Consumers and Hobby from misuse of official name and emblems - public comment sought on new rule . . .

The Secretary of the Treasury has authorized the implementation of a regulation that would help protect consumers and the coin-collecting hobby when the Department of the Treasury's and the United States Mint's names and emblems are used in confusing, misleading and deceptive advertising. The United States Mint is soliciting public comment on the proposed rule, which will be published in the Federal Register. The regulation would allow the United States Mint to fine those who misuse its name or emblems or those of the Department of the Treasury. The authority for implementing this regulation is Title 31 of the United States code, Section 333.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT...

The 1936-dated Proof Set "Tribute" (Replica)

The United States Mint is aware of recent efforts by the National Collector's Mint to market a replica of the United States Mint's 1936-dated Proof Set. Consumers should know that the National Collector's Mint is a business not affiliated or connected in any way with the United States Mint or the United States Government. The product - featuring medallions that closely resemble coins produced in 1936 - includes no genuine United States coins.

The set, which is identified as a "tribute" to the first proof set produced by the United States Mint in 1936, features no genuine coins. Instead, the medallions contained in the set are reproductions and have a metal content different from the genuine coins produced by the United States Mint. Actual proof sets produced by the United States Mint. Actual proof sets produced by the United States Mint in 1936 remain a popular item among collectors.

Consumers should note that the medallions in the National Collector's Mint "tribute" set are metallurgically different than their U.S. coin counterparts. For example, the National Collector's Mint's "penny" medallion is made entirely of copper. Actual 1936-dated Lincoln pennies, backed by the United States Government, consist of 95 percent copper, and 5 percent tin and zinc.

Similarly, the National Collector's Mint's "nickel" medallion is made of "pure silver clad." Actual 1936-dated Indian Head/Buffalo nickels consist of 75 percent copper and 25 percent nickel. Additionally, the image used on the National collector's Mint's "nickel" medallion appears to have been taken from the 2001-dated Buffalo Commemorative Coin, itself based on the original Indian Head/Buffalo nickel (designed in 1913). The size of the head in relation to the inscription "LIBERTY" on the "tribute" nickel's obverse, as well as details in the subject's braid, hair and face, reflect the 2001-design and not the original design used in 1936.
